

Syllabus Basic Korean 1 for Foreign Students (Summer 2017)

Instructor: Eunyoung Lee

Office hours: by appointments

E-mail: dldmsdud@kaist.ac.kr

Course Title: Basic Korean 1 for Foreign Students

Classes(day, room): Mon, Wed 09:00-12:00, Tue, Thu, Fri 09:00-11:00

Course Number: HSS006(10.108)

No. of Credit: 3-0-3

Course Description: Students will learn the skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing in Korean.

Materials: 서강한국어 1A(Sogang Kotean 1A) student's book

Course Requirements and Evaluation: Midterm(30%), Final(30%), Attendance(10%), Class Assignments(total 30%: Quiz 10%, speaking test (introduction 5%), Writing (schedule / 20, 5%))

Class Participation: When a student is observed not eagerly participating in class activities (talking in English, studying for other classes, taking a nap etc.), some points (1-10%) will be extracted from their final score. When doing something else other than instructed in the lab(internet surfing or e-mailing), you cannot get A or A- and the final grade will be lowered.

Absences: Points will be subtracted from your final score (0.5% per absence) for inexcusable absences and tardiness.

Excusable Absences: Absences can be excused in case of illness, family emergency, and other unforeseeable incidents beyond the control of a student. A signed note from a person who can verify the absence (e.g. a note from a doctor in case of illness) and his/her phone number are required.

※ This class is in Korean. We only speak in Korean in this class. It will be difficult during the first few weeks but as time goes by you will get used to it. If you have any English questions please ask me after the class. Please speak English slowly to me. Or please write down your question in English. Please you have to practice Korean everyday. Please review all the materials you have learned today. If you don't practice Korean everyday, it will be difficult for you later on.
